DAVIS RESIDENT ELECTED TO LEAD LOS RIOS FOUNDATION

Sacramento—Robert M. Walker has been elected to serve as chair of the Los Rios Foundation, which supports the students and colleges of the Los Rios Community College District.

Walker, a resident of Davis, California, is executive vice president of the First Northern Bank in Dixon. He has been actively involved with the financial services industry since 1977. Walker is also active in community organizations including serving as past president of the West Sacramento Rotary.

Other officers elected include: Chair elect, Jean Foster, a retired CPA and a resident of Orangevale; vice chair, stewardship, James Allen, president of SAFE Credit Union and a resident of Folsom; and vice chair, finance, David Younger, principal architect with Lionakis Beaumont and a resident of Carmichael. All officers will serve two-year terms.

The Los Rios Foundation raises funds to support building programs, student scholarships, and a variety of college programs and activities throughout the Los Rios District.

The Los Rios Community College District serves more than 90,000 students at its four colleges—American River, Cosumnes River, Folsom Lake and Sacramento City.
